

Ludwig Boltzmann Institute
European History and Public Spheres

Everyday Life and Domination Practices in 20th Century Central Europe

Conference, organized by
Ludwig Boltzmann Institute
for European History and Public Spheres
(LBI EHP)

Date: 19 June 2012

09:00-10:45: Negotiating Everyday Life under Dictatorship

Chair: Gerhard Botz (LBI für Historical Social Sciences)

09:00-09:30: Benjamin Frommer (Northwestern University):
'Jews Not Allowed': The "Aryanization" of Public Spaces in Bohemia and Moravia, 1939-1941

09:30-10:00: Benita Blessing (University of Vienna):
Discipline and Punish: East German Summer Youth Camps

10:00-10:45: Discussion

10:45-11:00: Coffee break

If you are planning to attend, we will be thankful if you can let us know as soon as possible (by email at office@ehp.lbg.ac.at; by phone at the number 01/5134068) for organizational purposes.

11:00-12:45: Physical Violence in Late State Socialism

Chair: Paulina Bren (Vassar College)

11:00-11:30: Michal Pullmann (Charles University):
Violence and Normalization Society

11:30-12:00: Muriel Blaive (LBI EHP):
Giving Birth in Communist Czechoslovakia

12:00-12:45: Discussion

14:00-15:45: Normalized Socialism

Chair: Benita Blessing (University of Vienna)

14:00-14:30: Paulina Bren (Vassar College), Mary C. Neuburger
(University of Texas):
Communism Unwrapped: Consumption in Cold War Eastern Europe

14:30-15:00: Libora Oates-Indruchová (LBI EHP):
Collective Narratives of State-Socialist Academic Censorship

15:00-15:45: Discussion

15:45-16:00: Coffee break

16:00-17:45: History in Transformation

Chair: Benjamin Frommer (Northwestern University)

16:00-16:30: James Krapfl (McGill University):
The 1989 Revolution from Below

16:30-17:00: Philipp Ther (University of Vienna):
Transformation in Historical Perspective

17:00-17:45: Discussion