

PROGRAMME

Seminar series

Communist and Post-Communist Times in Central Europe

*Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for European History and Public Spheres, Vienna
2012-2013*

Unless otherwise specified, seminars are taking place at 17:00.

| Date | Lecturer |
|------------------|--|
| 03 October 2012 | Michael L. Miller (Central European University, Budapest) Beauty Queens, Irredentism and the Jewish Question in Interwar Hungary |
| 17 October 2012 | Petr Roubal (Prague) Docile Revolution: The Federal Assembly from Perestroika to the End of Czechoslovakia |
| 06 November 2012 | Martin D. Brown (Richmond, the American International University, London) Warning of World War III: John Hackett, Techno-thrillers, Détente and British Anti-Communism on the Cusp of the 'Second Cold War' |
| 12 December 2012 | Lavinia Snejana Stan (Babeş-Bolyai University) Stories about Migration on the Romania-Yugoslav Frontier during the Cold War |

| Date | Lecturer |
|------------------|---|
| 09 January 2013 | Dieter Segert (University of Vienna) The Footprint of State Socialism on Central European Post-Socialism |
| 16 January 2013 | Rosie Johnston (coordinator of the National Czech & Slovak Museum & Library's oral history project) Worlds of Ordinariness: Oral Histories of Everyday Life in Communist Czechoslovakia |
| 30 January 2013 | Sarah Lemmen (University of Vienna) A Non-Colonial Orientalism? Czech Travellers to the Orient, 1890-1938 |
| 25 February 2013 | Marta Rabikowska / Matthew Hawkins (University of East London) Losers and Winners in Capitalistic Poland: The Memory of Communism in Post-Industrial Margins of Transition |
| 13 March 2013 | Gerhard Botz (University of Vienna) Mauthausen Survivors Research Project. Transnational perspective on a Nazi Camp |
| 20 March 2013 | Patrice G. Poutrus (LBI EHP) Moving in, through, out: A Comparison of Representations of Migrants in Vienna and Berlin, 1919-1933 in cooperation with Vienna Wiesenthal Institute for Holocaust Studies (VWI) |
| 09 April 2013 | Ildiko Barna (Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest) / Andrea Pető (Central European University, Budapest) Theoretical and Methodological Problems of Analyzing Political Justice after WWII in Hungary |

| Date | Lecturer |
|---------------|---|
| 24 April 2013 | Christina Johansson (University of Malmö) The Museum in a Multicultural Setting |
| 08 May 2013 | Florian Bieber (University of Graz) National Identity in Flux: Causes of the Montenegrin Exception |
| 15 May 2013 | Nancy Wingfield (Northern Illinois University) Prostitution, Sexual Difference, and Venereal Disease in Wartime Habsburg Austria |